VIRTUAL ASSISTANT: Oghenefego Peace Umuteme (@FegoU)

DURATION: 5 Days (24th November 2025 - 28th November, 2025)

INTRODUCTION

This report outlines the support provided by Oghenefego Peace Umuteme (@FegoU), who served as my Virtual Assistant (VA) during an extremely busy and demanding period. Oghenefego assisted me in a variety of roles, including managing my commitments at SchoolBase, supporting my personal startup ventures (Resolve.vote and Usemenucard.com), and helping me attend important professional events, such as the 2025 Biennale General Meeting of the Nigerian Institute of Architects. Her efforts were invaluable in helping me navigate a period packed with overlapping responsibilities.

Support Overview

1. Scheduling & Time Management

Oghenefego's main responsibility was managing my daily schedule, ensuring that I could balance my professional and personal commitments without feeling overwhelmed. During this period, I had to juggle:

- Attendance at the Nigerian Institute of Architects Biennale General Meeting held at the Nigerian Army Conference Center and Suites (NACCAS) and the Banquet Hall of the Aso Rock Presidential Villa in Abuja.
- Ongoing tasks related to SchoolBase, including project oversight and team management.
- Responsibilities at my startups (Resolve.vote and Usemenucard.com).
- My full-time remote 9-5 job.

She designed a structured daily schedule for me, which included timely meeting reminders, setting aside work and personal time, and helping me stay on top of deadlines. Given the number of overlapping commitments, this support was crucial in allowing me to stay focused on what mattered most.

2. Meeting Support & Documentation

Oghenefego's role extended beyond just scheduling. She actively attended and supported my meetings at Resolve, MenuCard, and SchoolBase by providing detailed meeting notes, including:

- Comprehensive Notes: She attended key meetings and ensured all discussions were captured accurately. This allowed me to quickly review the meeting outcomes and understand action points without needing to spend additional time reading through lengthy minutes.
- Action Points & Follow-ups: After each meeting, she shared concise summaries, listing key action items and deadlines. She made sure that no important tasks fell through the cracks.
- Progress Tracking: Oghenefego actively monitored progress on ongoing projects, particularly in SchoolBase.

3. Problem-Solving & Blocker Identification

One of the most helpful aspects of Oghenefego's support was her ability to identify and address issues proactively. She:

- Monitored Team Progress: By staying in regular communication with me, Oghenefego was able to spot any potential blockers or bottlenecks early. Whether it was a delay from a developer or a miscommunication within the team, she helped surface these problems before they became larger issues.
- Provided Solutions: Whenever blockers were identified, she helped resolve them by either escalating the issues to the right people or suggesting alternative solutions. This allowed me to stay focused on my higher-level priorities rather than getting bogged down in troubleshooting.

EVALUATION OF PERFORMANCE

a. What Worked Well

Oghenefego provided exceptional support during an intense period, and several aspects of her work stood out:

1. Effective Schedule Coordination:

- She was instrumental in managing my schedule. Despite having so many competing priorities, she kept me on track by organizing my time effectively and providing constant reminders of my commitments. I didn't have to worry about missing meetings or losing track of important tasks.

2. Timely & Consistent Meeting Support:

- Her punctuality and consistency were key. She was always on time for meetings, and more importantly, she made sure the meeting notes were delivered promptly with clear action points. This allowed me to stay organized and avoid unnecessary delays in follow-ups.

3. Proactive Communication & Coordination:

- Oghenefego's proactive approach ensured that I never missed a beat. Whether it was a quick check-in before a meeting or a timely reminder of an upcoming deadline, her communication was always on point. She made it easy for me to stay focused on decision-making, knowing that the operational details were being handled efficiently.

4. Wellness Check-ins:

- Oghenefego's care for my well-being was also highly appreciated. She made sure to remind me regularly to take breaks, which helped me avoid burnout during such a hectic period. While I may have joked that she could have "forced" me to take breaks, I know that these small reminders helped me keep my energy up and stay productive.

b. What Could Be Improved

Although Oghenefego's performance was excellent, there is always room for small improvements:

- Encouraging More Frequent Breaks: While Oghenefego did a great job reminding me to take breaks, I do think she could have been even more insistent at times. I tend to push myself too hard, and having her actively force me to step away from work might have been beneficial for both my mental clarity and productivity. It's a minor point, but one worth mentioning.

c. Rating: 10/10

Given the complexity of the tasks she managed and the positive impact her work had on my productivity, I would rate Oghenefego's support at 10/10. She was organized, proactive, and highly efficient, ensuring that I could focus on my most important work while she handled the logistical details.

Would I Work with Her Again?

Absolutely. Without a doubt, I would work with Oghenefego again, and I would highly recommend her to anyone in need of a reliable, highly skilled VA. She provided immense value by keeping my schedule under control, supporting my teams, and ensuring that everything ran smoothly.

To sum up, yes, 100%, I would love to work with her again. I hope she feels the same way!
